

GENERAL STATE NEWS.

The Bristol circus, organized at Heliopolis, O., is stranded at Union City, N. J., where it is being held up by a party of men, who are demanding a ransom of $10,000.

Mrs. Martha Manning, a wealthy lady of New York, is dead. She was ninety-two years old.

W. M. Vandenberg, near Wilkinson, died of injuries received by being killed by a horse.

Mrs. John Drake, of Anderson, shot by her husband, who afterward committed suicide, died yesterday.

Charles B. Moulton, who secured a franchise for the Chicago and Dunbar with an electric line.

Paul Clem, of Carroll county, twenty years old, is suffering from health, committed suicide by hanging.

John Dickerson, a musician of Lebanon, is on trial, accused of attempting to commit suicide by shooting himself.

The Henderson House at Michigan City, F. J. Henderson and Joseph W. W. Henderson, has closed because of bad times.

The Magneto Telephone Company is trying to get a footing at Elwood, which is being violently opposed by the Central Telephone Company.

Charles Will, a member of the Muncie militia company, has returned home from Hammond, having been disabled by an accidental fall.

The tenth annual meeting of the Cleveland Plenic Association will be held at Cleveland on the 20th and 21st inst.

The American Bell standard exchange telephone system, which is being used by the Central Union Telephone Company at Laporte, negotiations having been concluded.

George Barker, of Covington, in attempting to walk home from Veedersburg, was assaulted by three men, who beat him and then fled.

The miners employed in the Harrison mines, in Clay county, have refused to work on the 20th inst., claiming that the Columbus agreement calls for 70 cents, and they will work for no less.

Kelley's brigade of Coxey's army, about sixty strong, marched through Crawfordsville yesterday, escorted by Mayor and city authorities.

It is claimed to be miners en route from Colorado to Washington.

While Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dennison, of Hamilton county, were driving toward Union City, the horse suddenly shied and Mrs. Dennison was thrown out, and the fall her neck was broken and she died.

The second yacht race under the auspices of the Wauwassie Yacht Club will be given on the 20th inst.

The third race is set for August 14. Colonel Lyle's yacht, the "Cynthia," will not start in the race.

The Oliver plow works, of South Bend, has finished a plow which will be sent to the fair at Balmoral Castle, to be held there on the 20th inst.

The plow is the finest piece of workmanship of that kind ever produced.

The clerk of Decatur county, having occasion to look at a certain order-book, found that it had been stolen. It contained the names of the last order-book, of terms of credit, and the entries of the Duke mortgage case and a number of other things.

Michael Corbett, of Muncie, bartender for Frank Benjamin, the saloon-keeper, convicted for the murder of Lemuel Benjamin, has been sentenced to life imprisonment.

Fire broke out last night in the saw-mill owned by Adam Helfrich, at Evansville, in the center of the mill, and several million feet of lumber. The entire loss will reach $50,000, with 80 per cent. insured.

The electric wire is attributed to the electric wire.

Alexander is looking forward with bright anticipation to the opening of the DePauw glass-works, the Lippincott glass-works, and the Lippincott glass-works, which will be opened in the near future.

Mrs. Heileberg and four children, of German township, Vanderburg county, were driving in a wagon, when the horse was thrown down an embankment, the horses becoming frightened by an electric car, and the children were killed.

The Rev. P. H. Hensen, of Evansville, who purchased a Brazil, several days ago purchased a Brazil, and two days ago he went east on the National, since which time he has been on the missing list.

A farmer reported that he saw a new bicycle standing in a fence near his place, but that it was the nearest approach to news of the missing minister.

Mrs. Hensen is a man of family, and his disappearance is a great loss to the community.

There is fear that he has met with foul play, or that he is mentally affected, and wandering aimlessly around.

LILLY, FORTUNE, ETC.

Judge Rupe, in overruling the demurrers of Eli Lilly and William Fortune, swept aside, with scant courtesy, all the fantastic apologies which have been made in palliation of the scandalous conduct of the one in giving and of the other in accepting of the other in accepting of $5,000 of other people's money. He analyzes the case with the pitilessness of fate. There is only one element in it of which he takes no cognizance, and that is the secrecy with which the misappropriation was made, and the cleverness with which it was covered up. In the official report of Fortune on the presentation of which to the citizens' committee, it will be remembered, a vote of thanks to the thrifty Fortune for his "disinterested services" was enthusiastically adopted!

We can not do better than reproduce here Judge Rupe's scathing words:

As to the sum of $5,000 charged to have been wrongfully paid to the defendant Fortune, a different question is presented. The bill charges that this payment was a misappropriation of funds because the payment was made for services voluntarily rendered in a public enterprise without any contract for such payment expressly implied, and that for a large part of such services the defendant had been paid his salary as secretary of the Commercial Club.

The character of the value of the defendant's services are not material. Funds to the amount of $30,000, or more, had been withdrawn upon a requisition of the defendants Lilly and Fortune, and placed in the hands of the general treasurer, Albert Gail, for the payment of the encumbrances. From the city treasury $35,000 had been withdrawn by the committee upon requisition of defendant Lilly.

These funds were set apart for the payment of the legitimate and proper expenses of the encumbrance. The requisition, made by defendant Lilly upon the encumbrance committee for the $35,000 of the city's funds, contained a personal agreement and pledge that those funds should only be used for legitimate expenses of the encumbrance, and also that any unexpended balance should be turned back into the city treasury.

Lilly was bound to see that none but proper and legitimate bills were allowed or paid, either from the city funds or other funds in the hands of the general treasurer. It is not claimed that any bill was paid which was not entirely right and proper to be paid, except the $5,000 paid to Mr. Fortune. This money did not come from the city funds, but from those subscribed by the Commercial Club. But the city was directly affected by such payment, because its effect was to reduce the balance which would have been payable to the city upon the final settlement by the sum of $5,000.

The defendant Fortune had no legal claim or demand upon the organization for these funds for payment. The defendant Lilly had no authority to make a donation to any officer of the organization. All the services rendered by Mr. Fortune prior to the Citizens' organization were rendered as secretary of the Commercial Club, and for which he received a salary. One of the rules of the Citizens' organization is as follows:

No indebtedness for any purpose shall be incurred or will be paid without a requisition having been first obtained from the executive director.

This requires that payment should have been authorized before the services rendered. Mr. Fortune necessarily drew the warrant upon the treasury himself for the amount of the $5,000 paid him, the warrant being approved by Mr. Lilly as chairman. Before the defendant Fortune could have had any claim against these funds on account of services it would have been necessary that his employment should have been authorized by himself as executive director in advance of the services rendered, and the money received by him must have been paid upon his own warrant drawn upon the funds, approved by the chairman.

Defendants Lilly and Fortune should be required to account in this action for the $5,000.

"Lilly had no authority to make a donation" of other people's money to Fortune. "Fortune had no legal claim" to the money. It is good to know that in regard to the scandalous "etc.", at least, law and morality are at one.

And now what? If the men are not utterly callous to public opinion and obstinately defiant of their plain duty, they will put an immediate stop to the city's humiliation at their conduct by restoring to the city treasury the money which they have misappropriated.

A PIECE OF SCOUNDRELISM.

The Sacramento strikers or sympathizers with them were guilty yesterday of as flagrant an act as ever blackened the fame of a civilized country. Too cowardly to meet their enemies—who were the Nation's defenders—in open war, they sneaked out and unspiked the rails of the road over which the soldiers were to ride, concealing their work with a covering of sand, and undermined a trestle over which the train was to pass. The desired result followed, as the train left the track and plunged through the trestle. The engineer and three private soldiers were killed, while four of the soldiers were seriously injured.

Of course this piece of scoundrelism is disowned by the leader of the strikers in an address condemning the act as "outrageous and barbarous and entirely contrary to the spirit of the A. R. U., which is engaged in an honorable struggle in the interest of labor and is opposed to violence or the sacrificing of human life." Possibly the men who did this thing had no official authority for their act, but in the very address repudiating it, it is admitted that the work was done by "sympathizers." Moreover, the San Francisco strikers who yesterday dined two trains at Oakland, speak of the Sacramento catastrophe as "one of the fortunes of war." So it is, but the war is of the sneaking, bush-whacking, guerrilla variety—or rather it is cold-blooded, premeditated murder.

Evidence is not wanting to show that the strikers knew beforehand what was to happen. The very men who, after the disaster, denied that the strikers had had anything to do with it, openly boasted, before the train left the station, that it would never get through to San Francisco. Clearly, they had inside information. They did not dare to face the soldiers, and, as they were determined to keep the trains from running, there was only one course left for them to take. They did not hesitate to take it. Their purpose was accomplished. The train did not reach San Francisco. They said that it would not get there. They were right. It did not get there. It is to be hoped that the perpetrators of the crime will be discovered and punished.

SOVEREIGN'S FIASCO.

The "strike" which Sovereign launched upon the country Tuesday night by the promulgation of an order calling out all the Knights of Labor, has evidently stuck upon the ways. Many people were a little nervous over the outlook. The prospect of a strike involving a million men was not a pleasant one. Sovereign himself was so confident of success, and his proclamation was such a tremendous affair with its "hated," and "terrible forebodings," and "arrogant lash," and "relentless fury," and "chasm" that timid souls could not but be somewhat alarmed.

But both they and Sovereign underestimated the intelligence of the American workman. The idea that a million laborers would throw up their jobs at Sovereign's command, in the vain hope of helping out a strike in which they were not concerned, and a strike, too, which was already broken, is absurd on the face of it. Workmen, like all other men, make mistakes, and often very bad ones, but they are not congenial idiots. Sovereign thought they were, but he is mistaken. They have, however, taken him at his word, in at least two particulars. In his strike order he used this language:

I beseech you to be true to your obligations in this hour of trial. Court the cooperation of the general public. Both of these admonitions have been heeded. The men over whom this inflated, rhetorical claim jurisdiction have been true to their obligations—their obligations to society, their families, their employers and themselves. And they have "courted the co-operation of the general public" by turning a deaf ear to Sovereign's shriek.

There is, however, one result which we all owe to this famous "strike"—and that is a remarkable contribution to the literature of the nineteenth century. The people will welcome it, and it may be that in future ages school-boys will declaim the eloquent words of this new candidate for literary immortality. Of course we refer to Sovereign's futile order. It is true that it did not accomplish its immediate purpose, but what does that amount to, if generations yet unborn shall read with delight these words:

A crisis has been reached in the affairs of this Nation that endangers the peace of the Republic. Every fiber in our civil structure is strained to the breaking point. The shadows of factional hatred hover over our fair land with terrible forebodings. The arrogant lash of superiority is being applied by the corporations with relentless fury and the chasm between the masses and the classes is growing deeper and wider with each succeeding day. If peace is restored and this Nation saved from acts repulsive to the conscience of all Christian people, there must be wise action and that quickly.

Thus again we learn that there is no act which does not in some way influence events. The strike is dead—or rather Sovereign's strike never was born. But the world is richer, and it has Mr. Sovereign to thank for his royal contribution to its stores of oratory.

WOSE AND WORSE.

The Populist organ correctly says that "the sole object" of the A. R. U. strike was "to force" (notice the word "force") "the Pullman company to arbitrate," and then it adds that it—the organ aforesaid—"will sincerely regret, if, by the suppression of lawlessness, this purpose shall fail." Here is a most extraordinary statement. Our frantic friend does not say that it will sincerely regret if the attempt to "force" Pullman to arbitrate fails by reason of lawlessness, but if it shall fail by the suppression of lawlessness.

If that does not seem pretty near to regretting the "suppression of lawlessness," in case such suppression causes failure to the purpose of "forcing" an arbitration, then language here does not have its ordinary force. To suppress lawlessness is a regrettable act if by such suppression a scheme to force arbitration shall fail!

Really, neither Waite nor Altgeld, neither Kyle nor Peffer, ever gave utterance to more machievous doctrine. Is our Populist friend gone clean mad?

The Populist organ is trying to rob the increase in wages of the street-car employees of its grace by asserting that it was done by the company in order to prevent a strike. This increase in wages is simply in accordance with the purpose announced by the company at the time of the decrease. It is also a recognition of the faithful services of the conductors and motormen. It is to be hoped that they so regard it as to not allow the discredited organ of a discredited city administration to belittle them.

If Colonel Lilly, Mr. Fortune and the Commercial Club are willing to hold on to the $12,000 on the terms laid down by Judge Rupe, perhaps they can be said to have "earned" it. The representations, and promises, and pledges which Messrs. Lilly and Fortune made are held to be "immaterial." If they care to have their representations, and promises, and pledges treated in that way, and are willing to stand upon the letter of the ordinance as interpreted by Judge Rupe, it seems to us that they will be paying very dearly for their $12,000.

A penny for Terrence V. Powderly's thoughts these days would be worth paying. Indeed they might be worth a Sovereign.

When it comes to supporting law and order the old soldiers can pretty nearly give points to the hottest youth. The way in which the G. A. R. posts of Indiana have rallied to the support of government; the honesty with which they have laid aside party and have approved the action of President Cleveland and Governor Matthews, and more than this, have asked the Governor to call on them if he needs volunteers, does infinite honor to the men who thirty years ago and more sprang to the defense of the Government when it was assailed.

We know of no State in the Union in which there has been such outspoken response to the cause of law and order, as there has been in Indiana during the strike now passing. As Governor Matthews the other day happily said: "There is no place in the Union where the eagle can scream louder than in Indiana."

The character of the Government has been after Debs and Debsism, the executive and the judicial. The legislative seems to have anticipated him.

Mr. Sovereign has not full autocratic powers after all. He is a sovereign with a string tied to his scapular.

If this city can prove the facts alleged in its complaint, and we do not doubt that it can, the chances are that it will be $5,000 better off. It is sometimes possible to go behind even an "etc."

Wouldn't Sovereign rather like it if he had a less ironically suggestive name about now?

Recently the power of Debs seemed at flood, but now it ebbs.

The Knights of Labor are not exactly loyal to the usages of the Sovereign.

The Morning Anarchist has been developing some rare "scopos" recently. First it printed an interview between Secretary Herbert George M. Pullman, which never took place. Next it had Mr. Debs sending fifty agitators to Indianapolis to induce men to strike at this point when nothing of the kind was done, and yesterday it set forth with proper disavowal a strike of laundresses in Chicago, when that gentleman was in New York on that day. ## THE MARKET TENDENCIES.

Business is beginning to resume its normal course. For the first time in a number of days there was a regular live stock market at Chicago, and a threatened strike of expert butchers there had a depressing effect.

Wheat speculation was more active at Chicago, and after quiet strength, as on Wednesday, went higher. Corn was strong, owing to light supplies and fear of dry weather.

Stocks at New York were less firm but no panic was doing, and changes were not pronounced. Gold exports were not reported.

Indianapolis Wholesale Markets.

Business is expanding somewhat with improved transportation facilities, but the restoration to normal conditions is slow, and the normal condition now seems of quiet.

Trade in poultry is the most active, and is getting in motion after the check caused by the strike. Commission men expect business to get back to its old lines within a short time, but it will still require a few days before the market becomes more plentiful, and is lower. Apples are in again, and blackberry receipts have been liberal.

The opening up of freight lines has already led to increased receipts of eggs and poultry. Eggs have come in so heavily that prices have given way.

Further advances are noted in hams, bacon and lard.
